

MISSION STATEMENT

The Mission of the Lincoln County Home Builders Association is:

- to assist members by providing access to education, information and services they need to operate their businesses;
- to represent the home building industry and our members to local governments and home buyers;
- to provide affirmation of ethical business practices by our members

New Mexico Home Builders Association

Your membership in LCHBA automatically makes you a member of the New Mexico Home Builders Association. The state association has been serving the New Mexico building industry since 1956 as a state coordination body for all local HBAs.

National Association of Home Builders

Membership in LCHBA also includes membership to the National Association of Home Builders. The NAHB offers services in industry research, legislative and regulatory representation, business and construction legal assistance, industry news, statistical information, education, training and other special member benefits. You can find out more about the benefits of membership at www.nahb.com
